DISCUSSION

a. City Manager Recruitment

Gary Milliman, Prothman Executive Recruiting, introduced himself and provided details regarding his qualifications, duties with Prothman and the application review process. He explained that negotiation of the employment agreement is not part of the role of Prothman but the company offers a guarantee that, if the candidate chosen is not retained for more than one year, they will undertake the process again at no cost to the City other than advertising costs.

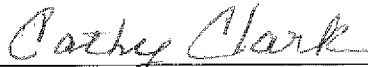

Mr. Milliman then fielded questions and discussion took place regarding levels of interviews, 'ideal candidate profile' criteria, the importance of making individual contact with each Council member and their recommended stakeholders for input, efforts made to reach out to minorities, pros and cons on holding an 'open house' with candidates, additions to the community profile, community challenges and opportunities, desired city manager qualities, and starting over if there are no acceptable candidates.

Mayor Clark reminded Councilors to be ready for one-on-one conversation with Mr. Milliman in order to provide their input to the Candidate and Community Profiles and recommendations for community stakeholders.
