SPECIAL ORDERS OF BUSINESS None

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Jane Herb, Keizer, summarized information received by the Planning Commission at their most recent meeting through a presentation from representatives of the Department of Land Conservation and Development regarding the Climate Friendly and Equitable Communities rules and shared other details of the meeting.

Tammy Kunz, Keizer, shared information about recent Northeast Keizer Neighborhood Association activities, plans and concerns.

Mathew Poteet, Keizer, reported on the recent Parks Board meeting including band approval and discussion about vandalism. He added that because Parks Tour will be on the Monday before the regular meeting the September meeting was cancelled. Parks set for visits are Palma Ciega, Bair and Keizer Rapids.

City Manager Adam Brown noted that camera systems are being researched for installation at parks to address the vandalism problem.

PUBLIC COMMENT Mayor Clark noted that one written comment received would not be entered into the record because it violates the requirement that comments not be disparaging of peoples' character or motivation; one other was received from Roy Price regarding work along Labish Ditch.
