PROJECTS/REPORTS

Flood History River Marker at Boat Ramp Update:

- Flood Sign: Committee members discussed the format and content of the sign and decided to limit the verbiage on the sign focusing on photographs with captions under them. They will reference the source of the information as well.
- Marker: City staff reported that nothing has been done in this regard pending completion of the Big Toy project.

Status of Geo-caches: Erica Hedberg reported that she continues checking the caches. She and Bev Ecklund will work together to establish four new ones.

Oral History:

- Kris Adams absent
- Bev Ecklund reported that she had been unable to reach Mr. Gaynor. She volunteered to try to contact Mike Hart. Councilor Herrera urged her to contact him through his wife, Betty and indicated that he would give her the number.
- Anita Zahniser reported that she would be making another appointment with 98-year old Millie Freshour-White. She gave an oral history presentation at Emerald Point but no one volunteered to be interviewed. She is also hoping to work with Joanne Beilke at the annual 'Keizer Kids' picnic. She will talk to them at the picnic to see if they want to set up an interview indoors.

Claggett Creek Cemetery: Kris Adams absent; no report.

Facebook Page: A photograph was taken of the members to be posted on the Facebook page. Bev Ecklund reported that she would post the committee vacancy there as well.

Historical Art: Anita Zahniser reported that she had attended an Arts Commission meeting to ask if there was an opportunity for the two committees to collaborate on a historical piece. The Commission informed her that KPIC could collaborate on the third mural because it would be historical.
