6. Review of Arts
Commission Budget

a. April 2024

The Commission discussed the budget, the box wraps to be paid in this budget cycle, and the challenge of getting a lift for the story poles to be treated. The Commission has approximately $3,000 that they could use to buy more art.

The Commission would like to review art approved for the gallery for a year and consider purchasing some of that artwork at a new meeting for Tuesday, June 18th. The packet needs to be sent to Commission right away, and they would select 5 to 10 pieces.

It was suggested to narrow-down future art displays at the time of the displays for possible purchases.

Councilor Reid moved in the coming Fiscal Year to narrow down choices to three for future consideration of purchases. Seconded by Lore Christopher. Motion passed unanimously as follows: Christopher, Thoreson, Steen, Wood, Reid, and Sisco in favor with one open position.

7. Review Holiday
Card Submissions

- a. 2024 Submissions The Commission discussed the artwork submitted, voted, and selected Rachel Wood's Christmas Snowman.
- Lore Christopher moved to accept the Christmas Snowman by Rachel Wood as the Winner of the 2024 Holiday Art Contest. Deborah Sisco seconded. Motion passed as follows: Christopher, Thoreson, Wood, Reid, and Sisco in favor with Steen and one open position.
- 8. New Business Discussion ensued about the QR Codes to recognize the artists, as to where they would be linked, such as to the City or the Keizer Community Foundation. The Keizer Community Foundation have paid the stipends to the artists. Councilor Reid feels that this topic should go before the City Council once this has been clarified. Lore Christopher suggested the stipends be refunded, so Keizer Community Foundation would no longer be included.
- Deputy City Recorder Dawn Wilson would find out if the stipends has paid for year 2024 and the amount, so they can be refunded to the Keizer Community Foundation in order for the QR Codes to go to the City's website.
- a. Mayor Clark Suggested a Way to Connect with Urban Artists to have Art in & around the Skate Park ~ See attachment from Ramiro Navarro that he posted on Facebook Kim Steen called the artist but didn't hear back. It was suggested to place this in an archive for future needs. Lore Christopher would also send an email of interest to the artist.
- b. Consider Changing the Meeting Time from 6pm to 5:30pm for All Regular Meetings The Commission decided to stay with the 6:00 p.m. time for regular meetings.
- c. Discussion on the Idea of QR Codes on the various art pieces pointing to the Keizer Community Foundation where information about the artists could Discussed out of order, and this would be going to an upcoming Council meeting for discussion.

be housed. The goal is to have all of the City's artwork at a central website so the QR Code would lead to either the City's website or the Keizer Community Foundations website.

- d. Discussion on Renaming the "Cold, Wet Eagle" - at the Request of a Keizer Resident via the 04/15 Council meeting. Please SEE attached Ordinance, Section 12.
- The Arts Commission discussed the request and made no recommendation for the artist's integrity. City staff should ask the artist about changing the name and to see if he feels strongly about the name. The conversation would include that the City received a request from a member of the public to look into this, that the Commission just wanted to "feel the waters," and the Commissioners respected his opinion. If he's open to a name change, it would go before the Council.

9. Other Business

- a. Keizer Public Art Walk brochure ~ updated by Chair Thoreson
- The Commission reviewed the updated, draft brochure that Chair Thoreson provided. Chair Thoreson commented that she can't finish the brochure until the QR Code and website link has been decided.
- Kim Steen commented that Rosalie's Cows should be Rosalie's Silly Cows. Chair Thoreson asked about including the box wraps, and the Commission agreed that they should be included. It was suggested to print out the brochure and have all the members write on them with suggestions.
- b. Chair Thoreson to Report on Artwork from a Church's Gallery
- Chair Thoreson noted that this item can be changed to the Willamette Heritage Center in Salem for the Native American Art.
- c. Draft Strategic Plan Review ~ Feedback from Members
- Adam Brown invited any comments. Councilor Reid said that the Arts Commission should use their lens when considering the draft Strategic Plan. Chair Thoreson offered to draft this Commission's comments on goals to attract a community for all, infrastructure, communications, and small town feel.

Hi Dawn,

I heard you are looking for art to print in large format to beautify utility boxes in Keizer.

I'd like to submit a digital illustration of mine, titled lo:q' (after the Hupa word for salmon—my heritage on my father's side). Please find attached.

If this piece were selected, I'd like to do some digital refining/altering to ensure the large format will have suitable fidelity and fit appropriately.

I may be interested in submitting another piece as well. If it works out, I'll make sure I get it to you by April 11.

Thanks so much,

Mackenzie Melendy

Dear D. Wilson:

Marilyn Wood told me about the Arts Commissioner's search for art for utility boxes.

This sounds like a fun project. I have chosen art from my portfolio that I believe would best fit the area.

Thank you for reviewing my work. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sharon Housen
